

Myung-Whun Chung, MUSIC DIRECTOR

Auditions in SEOUL

October 25 – November 6, 2010

*Schedule subject to change

“Seoul Philharmonic Orchestra is a world-class ensemble”
by Berliner Morgenpost (June. 5, 2010)

The Seoul Philharmonic Orchestra has embarked on an ambitious campaign to reinvent itself as a world-class ensemble with music director Maestro Myung-Whun Chung. We invite highly qualified musicians from around the world to join us on this exciting journey.

The Seoul Philharmonic Orchestra is Korea's oldest and the most prominent orchestra with over 100 full-time members, including highly talented musicians from North America and Europe. We have around 120 concerts a year in Seoul a dynamic city with over 10 million citizens as well as in international cities. We recently performed in Berlin, Düsseldorf, Essen, Brescia, Bergamo, Bologna, Prague, Moscow, St. Petersburg, NYC, Beijing, Thailand and Osaka and are currently scheduled to perform in Edinburgh, Amsterdam and Tokyo. A list of guest conductors of the orchestra includes Andrej Boreyko, Stephane Deneve, Charles Dutoit, James DePreist, Mikko Franck, James Judd, Ludovic Morlot, and Jukka-Pekka Saraste.

We are accepting applications for the following positions:

Concertmaster
Principal 1st Violin
Principal Horn
Principal Trumpet
Principal Trombone

3rd Chair Viola
3rd Chair Double Bass
Utility Horn

Housing will be provided for principal winners.

Visit www.seoulphil.or.kr and fill out the online application form no later than October 3.

For further questions, please email Audition Coordinator at audition@seoulphil.or.kr.

Please click here for the audition repertoire list.