

Violinist – The Danish Chamber Players

– chamber musician full time

The Danish Chamber Players - Storstrøms Kammerensemble - consists of 8 full time chamber musicians: flute, clarinet, bassoon, harp, piano, violin, viola and cello. The ensemble is a state financed regional ensemble, producing professional classical chamber music at the highest level, being a “musical dynamo” in the local community and cultural environment.

As a musician in the Danish Chamber Players one is required to perform in concerts at the highest level, teach and instruct, collaborate with other musical and cultural genres, make CD recordings and touring. The level of activities is high, and the comprehensive nature of the tasks requires a fine combination of artistic ambition, flexibility and collaboration skills.

Audition: May 6th & 7th 2010
Application deadline: March 29 2010

The Ensemble will choose a limited number of candidates among the applicants, and the audition will consist of one round. The candidates will be required to perform the following:

- One of the following sonatas by Ludwig van Beethoven:
Sonata, G major op.30, no. 3, 1st movement, or Sonata c minor, op.30, no. 2, 1st movement, or
Sonata, A major op.47, 1st movement
Plus:
- Naji Hakim: Sakskøbing Præludier, no. 1, 5, 9 and 10
- Gabriel Pierné: Voyage au Pays du Tendre

The chosen Beethoven sonata may be performed with a pianist of the candidate’s own choice or with a pianist provided free of charge by the Ensemble. The remaining two works are to be performed with members of the Ensemble.

The audition will be held in the chamber music hall at the Ensemble’s base, the 19th century manor house, “Fuglsang”, situated near Nykøbing Falster. Travelling expenses and expenses for accommodation must be met by the applicant.

Applications must be lodged using the application form which can be found at the Danish Chamber Players’ website or by contacting the office. Contact details are listed below.

Conditions of employment will be according to the existing agreement with the Danish Musicians Union.
