Section Principal Flute

WNO shares the power of live opera and classical music with audiences and communities across Wales and England. We are a creative and inspiring place to work and recognise that our colleagues play a vital role in advancing our strategic priorities to deliver on our ambitions.

Resident at Cardiff's Wales Millennium Centre, WNO Orchestra is one of two, permanent, full-time ensembles at the centre of the Company, alongside the WNO Chorus. As a national company with international status, WNO sits at the heart of music-making in Wales and plays a valuable role in the communities it serves in England. Touring is the lifeblood of the Company, entertaining and inspiring audiences both across the UK and internationally.

In addition to its significant Opera touring remit, WNO Orchestra delivers an exciting annual portfolio of symphonic, chamber and self-directed concert programmes, predominantly to venues across England and Wales. Additionally, the Orchestra enjoys a global reputation, with notable international appearances at the Hong Kong Festival, in Dubai, Oman, Morocco, Brno and, most recently, opening the Prague Spring Festival 2023.

WNO is now seeking a dynamic Section Principal Flute to join its full-time contract orchestra.

What will be required of you?

- To play Section Principal Flute with WNO Orchestra as part of all its full-scale opera, recording and significant concert remit.
- To play Section Principal Flute in smaller ensembles as part of WNO's project remit as required by the Company.
- To play piccolo as required.
- To be an active contributor to WNO's programme of engagement projects across Wales and England.

What you will need to have?

- A very high standard of technical instrumental skill, musicality, and performance.
- Demonstrable principal experience.
- Experience of playing with professional opera/ballet/symphony orchestras.

- Experience and confidence in taking part in engagement activity.
- Ability to work as part of a team.
- Good interpersonal skills.
- Good communication skills.
