

Estonian National Opera is looking for

HEAD OF THE OPERA DEPARTMENT

Your primary responsibilities include managing the opera department, including organizing the work of opera soloists and negotiating with guest artists and production teams to involve them in the Estonian National Opera's productions.

You are welcome to apply if:

- You hold a higher education degree in music
- You possess extensive knowledge of classical music, a thorough understanding of various voice types, and keep up with developments in the opera world
- You have prior experience in people management
- You excel at planning work processes and managing time
- You are professional, independent, and have a positive attitude
- You are an excellent communicator with strong verbal and written expression skills
- You are proficient in English and willing to learn Estonian
- You are ready to collaborate with people from various countries
- You can handle high-pressure situations and remain calm in a fast-paced environment
- Previous work experience in a performing arts organization is an asset

To apply, please send your CV to personal@opera.ee (please include the job title in the email subject line) or apply via the CV Keskus platform. The recruitment process will remain open until a suitable candidate is found.

Workload: full time job

Start of work: as soon as possible

Additional information: personal@opera.ee

