

HMC BOARDING AND DAY

1106 Boys; 275 Sixth Form

VISITING MUSIC TEACHER - Classical Saxophone

We are seeking an experienced and enthusiastic Teacher of Classical Saxophone at Bedford School. This is a part-time role, offering around half a day's work per week.

The school has a thriving music department, with around 300 pupils taking weekly instrumental/singing lessons with over 30 visiting teachers in the team. The successful candidates will work across the whole age range of the school (Years 3-13).

We welcome applications from those available to take up the position in September 2025.

Closing date	27 June 2025
Interview date	Week beginning 30 June 2025

Suitable candidates may be interviewed before the closing date and Bedford School reserves the right to withdraw the position if an early appointment is made. Applicants are therefore encouraged to apply early.

The Director of Music, Mr Joss Sanders, would be happy to talk to prospective applicants; he can be contacted via email at jsanders@bedfordschool.org.uk

Suitable candidates may be interviewed before the closing date and Bedford School reserves the right to withdraw the position if an early appointment is made. Applicants are therefore encouraged to apply early.

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Applicants will be required to undergo child protection screening appropriate to the post, including checks with past employers and the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS). The School may carry out online searches on shortlisted applicants. The post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

The School is therefore permitted to ask job applicants to declare all convictions and cautions on a self-declaration form in advance of attending an interview (including those which are “spent” unless they are “protected” under the DBS filtering rules) in order to assess their suitability to work with children.

Bedford School is part of The Harpur Trust.
