

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title:	Sub-Principal Horn No.2, Doubling Wagner Tuba
Department:	BBC Symphony Orchestra
Division:	CONTENT
Current Base:	Maida Vale
Reporting to:	Orchestra Manager

Context

The BBC Symphony Orchestra is one of the UK's leading orchestras. It has played a central role at the heart of British musical life for more than 90 years and has a high profile both in the UK and on the international stage. The BBC SO has an outstanding reputation for its performances of a wide range of music with particular emphasis on 20th century and contemporary music; each year giving the world premieres of a number of works commissioned by BBC Radio 3.

As the flagship orchestra of the BBC, the BBC SO makes at least a dozen appearances each year at the BBC Proms, including the First and Last Nights. All BBC SO concerts are broadcast on BBC Radio 3 and a number are televised, giving it the highest broadcast profile of any UK orchestra.

The BBC SO gives frequent performances under its present Chief Conductor Sakari Oramo, performing regularly with a wide range of other international conductors and soloists. The BBC SO is Associate Orchestra of the Barbican in London and performs an annual concert season there of up to 25 concerts, including a number of concerts and events focusing on a single composer. Recent seasons have also seen the BBC SO embark upon a series of critically acclaimed performances of opera in concert. The BBC SO performs at a number of music festivals both in the UK and abroad, and undertakes regular major overseas tours.

Studio recordings play an important role in the Orchestra's life, both for BBC Radio 3 and for commercial recording companies, whilst a strong commitment to community and outreach work involves the Orchestra in a number of adventurous learning projects working with schools and members of the local community

The Orchestra is looking forward to moving to a new purpose built studio facility at the site of the former Olympic Park in East London within the next few years.

Overall purpose of the job:

The Sub-Principal Horn No.2 will work 100% of the Orchestra's schedule with the exception of the following number of sessions from which the player can request to be released:

1st Quarter 18

2nd Quarter 12

3rd Quarter 18

4th Quarter 18

If you are not required for any programmes because of orchestration, those tacet sessions would be deducted from your release allowance for the Quarter.

Full-time members of the Orchestra will receive 5 weeks leave per year. Four of these weeks are fixed within the orchestral schedule, and the remaining week may be taken as 10 sessions of flexible leave by agreement with the Orchestra Management. There are no 'normal' hours of work and you will be expected to be available to work on an agreed schedule any day of the week and to travel both within the United Kingdom and abroad.

Whilst this position does not require you to work exclusively for the BBC Symphony Orchestra, it is expected that the Orchestra will have first-call on your availability & commitment. In common with BBC policy regarding leave, any time off must be agreed in advance by the management and is subject to scheduling requirements.

All members must work in accordance with the BBC/MU Agreement, the Information for Orchestral Players Handbook and all other BBC policies both current and future.

Job Purpose

To sit as Sub-Principal Horn No.2, doubling and sitting up as required

To have excellent solo and orchestral playing abilities, maintaining the highest musical standards.

To be an effective and committed team player, demonstrating leadership as required, and to play a full role in the life of the Orchestra.

This job requires travelling throughout the UK and touring overseas as well as evening and weekend work patterns.

Key Responsibilities

To sit as Sub-Principal Horn No.2, doubling and sitting up as required.

To maintain the high standard of professional playing and musical and artistic excellence required by the Orchestra.

To familiarise oneself with the relevant parts, including solos, in advance of the first rehearsal and performances.

To support professionally any Leaders, Conductors and Artists engaged by the Orchestra.

To develop and support positive working relationships with all other members of the Orchestra, the section and any freelance players engaged by the Orchestra.

To participate in audition panels (to include writing audition reports) trial assessment meetings, orchestral and artistic meetings as required with due regard for confidentiality.

To engage in the general activities of the Orchestra, such as attendance at meetings, promotional activity, outreach and learning work*, and to act as an ambassador for the BBC/Orchestra during these activities.

To be a role model for BBC Values and to work in accordance with the BBC/MU Agreement, the Information for Orchestral Players Handbook and all other BBC policies and guidelines.

To support all the BBC's policies on managing people and diversity, including participation in Personal Development Reviews and training.

To work in accordance with the BBC's Health and Safety guidelines and policy.

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Required Knowledge and Experience

Excellent professional orchestral and solo playing abilities, maintaining the highest musical standards.

Knowledge of the range of repertoire of the BBC Symphony Orchestra.

Ability to work collaboratively to inspire and contribute to performances that meet the highest musical standards.

Good interpersonal skills and the ability to establish and develop harmonious working relationships with a diverse range of people.

Demonstrates commitment to maintain the reputation of the Orchestra.

Participates actively as part of a diverse team and supportive of colleagues.

Demonstrates respect for others by being fully prepared and ready to play at the start of every session.

Ability to plan ahead in order to prepare parts, organise allocations and to make the best use of the resources available.

Awareness of health and safety issues.

Competencies

The following competencies (behaviours and characteristics) have been identified as key to success in the job. Successful candidates are expected to demonstrate these competencies.

Planning & Organising – is able to think ahead in order to establish an effective and appropriate course of action for self and others. Prioritises and plans activities taking into account all the relevant issues and factors such as deadlines, staffing and resources requirements.

Resilience – can maintain personal effectiveness by managing emotions in the face of pressure, set backs or when dealing with provocative situations. Demonstrates an approach to work that is characterised by commitment, motivation and energy.

Change Management – can understand and anticipate the need for change. Builds frameworks to plan and manage the continuous process of change.

Managing relationships - able to build and maintain effective working relationships with a range of people. Works co-operatively with others to be part of a team, as opposed to working separately or competitively.

Self Development – is able to identify and apply opportunities for learning and development.

 The BBC is committed to safeguarding the welfare of children and young people and you may come into contact with children and young people as part of your job. Your offer of an engagement with the BBC is therefore subject to you confirming that you are not restricted from working with children and young people and you will be asked to sign a Personal Declaration Form to that effect. If you work more closely with children the BBC reserves the right to ask you to be checked by the Criminal Records Bureau.*

Health and Safety: Staff Responsibilities

All employees have responsibilities under the BBC and Group safety policy and under UK legislation specific responsibilities shall be defined in writing. All employees will:

- Take reasonable care of themselves and of anyone else who may be affected by their work
- Co-operate with their Manager in health and safety matters, including risk assessment and any controls identified
- Not take risks or endanger themselves and others
- Not interfere with, or misuse, anything provided in the interests of health and safety, fire or first aid
- Report accidents, faults and deficiencies to their manager
- Seek advice if in doubt about the adequacy of any safety arrangements
- Undertake health and safety training as directed

A job description is a written statement of the essential characteristics of the job, with its principal accountabilities, incorporating a note of the skills, knowledge and experience required for a satisfactory level of performance. This is not intended to be a complete, detailed account of all aspects of the duties involved.