Job description

The position as principal flutist in the Nordic Chamber Orchestra, is a permanent full-time job, which means that you currently work 70% in the Nordic Chamber Orchestra and 30% in the Nordic Chamber Ensemble.

The Nordic Chamber Orchestra's wind players have a flexible working method where you, as principal, have a certain obligation to rotate in agreement with co-principal. As principal flutist, you therefore have some obligation to play 2nd flute.

As a member of the Nordic Chamber Ensemble, you will participate in planning chamber music productions and perform for audiences of all ages, including children, youth, and the elderly. Therefore, strong verbal communication skills with colleagues and audiences are required. The ensemble repertoire may also include playing piccolo and/or alto flute.

The Nordic Chamber Orchestra and its ensembles are part of Musik Västernorrland's regional music, which include touring in the Västernorrland region.

Your profile

We are looking for a musician with higher education in music and professional-level experience in orchestral and ensemble performance.

We value diversity and strive for a representation that reflects all backgrounds and perspectives.
