Job Title: Music Faculty for a New College of Music

Institution: Newly announced university for arts and culture in Riyadh

Location: Riyadh, KSA

Job Category: Teaching Post / Academic Music Lecturer

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is entering a new era through Vision 2030, with arts and culture at the centre of its social and economic transformation. As part of this ambitious agenda, a new University has been announced as the first in the MENA region and it will be dedicated entirely to arts and culture. This pioneering institution offers an unparalleled range of programs spanning music, theatre, film, literature, heritage, architecture, design, visual arts, and culinary arts - from vocational training through to doctoral research.

We are now seeking to appoint outstanding individuals across music disciplines who are inspired by shaping young musicians and laying the foundations for a new music industry.
