

Principal Tuba: Job Pack

1. Introduction / Message from the Orchestra Manager

The BBC Philharmonic Orchestra is the oldest radio orchestra in the world. Founded in 1922 as the 2ZY orchestra, we have been broadcasting live music for over 100 years. It's what we do best, and 103 years later, we are still going strong.

We are excited to start our search for a Principal Tuba to join our orchestra and lower brass section, creating some of the finest performances, broadcasts, and recordings.

It's a time of real growth for us. In the last year, we've launched some major new partnerships, expanded our audiences, and delivered incredible projects. From five-star Mahler at the Bridgewater Hall to critically acclaimed CD recordings; from thrilling international tours to our TV series Musical Storyland (15 million streams and counting) – the orchestra is on brilliant form.

Most importantly, we have the best possible mandate from the BBC – to create inspiring, ambitious, and courageous artistic work, and to make a large-scale impact for our audiences with that work.

If you think you have what we need, we can't wait to meet you.

Good luck!

Jane Bulpin
Orchestra Manager
