

Sheffield Music Academy: Musicianship & Aural Teacher

Sheffield Music Academy is a vibrant and thriving music education charity, nurturing the next generation of musicians in the region. Each Saturday during term time, we inspire and support musicians aged 4-19 through 1-1 teaching, ensembles, theory classes, and more – enabling young people to become well rounded and experienced musicians.

If you're enthusiastic about nurturing young people's musical development, we'd love to hear from you.

The post is subject to successful references and an enhanced DBS check.

About the Role:

The postholder will work with children aged 8-19, delivering classroom-based sessions in Musicianship and Aural.

Key Responsibilities:

- Inspiring young people to fulfil their potential through rewarding, and engaging learning.
- Confidently introduce beginners to the principles of musicianship and aural, and supporting their early musical development.
- Inform and contribute to SMA's curriculum, working closely with the Music Director and other tutors.
- Promote a safe, inclusive, and supportive environment.
- Availability to work 30 Saturdays per academic year in Sheffield from September 2026.
- Availability to support SMA concerts where required.

What We're Looking For:

- Proven experience leading music classes to young people of various ages and stages, including beginners.
- A passion for fostering young people to be their best, with experience helping them to develop both technically and artistically.
