ORGANIZATION OVERVIEW

Founded in 1961, the Huntsville Youth Orchestra has a long-standing tradition of musical excellence and youth development. HYO serves more than 200 students annually through a comprehensive pathway that includes six orchestras ranging from beginner strings to advanced full symphony, a chamber music program, and its summer intensive, Tennessee Valley Music Festival.

Located in Huntsville, Alabama—one of the fastest-growing cities in the Southeast—HYO benefits from a community known for its innovation, cultural investment, and high quality of life. Huntsville offers a vibrant arts scene, strong public and private education systems, and access to outdoor recreation in nearby mountains, rivers, and greenways. Candidates relocating for this position may find additional professional opportunities within the region's active performing arts and music education communities.

While musical excellence is central to our work, HYO is committed to educating, guiding, and supporting the whole child. We are a fiscally stable organization with a dedicated Board of Directors actively engaged in advancing HYO's mission.

THE POSITION

The Music Director is HYO's chief artistic leader, serving as the primary conductor, educator, and artist who provides vision and oversight for all programming. Reporting to the Board of Directors and partnering closely with the Executive Director. The role leads artistic planning and execution across all HYO programs; supervises all artistic staff; ensures high-quality musical and educational experiences; advances HYO's mission through strategic initiatives; leads recruitment and retention; and builds strong relationships with schools, instructors, and the broader community.

The Music Director will conduct the Huntsville Youth Symphony and either Sinfonia or Philharmonia, and various ensembles at the Tennessee Valley Music Festival.

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Five (5)+ years of orchestral conducting experience with student, professional, or community orchestras
- Degree in music, music education, or equivalent experience required
- Ability to plan and lead artistic and educational development of ensembles
- Broad knowledge of youth orchestra repertoire
- Ability to work with youth in a caring and supportive manner
- Thorough understanding of adolescent musical development
- Effective leadership, supervision, and mentorship, with a commitment to collaboration, transparency, and inclusivity
- Strong written, verbal, and public speaking communication skills
- Commitment to HYO's mission, strategic goals, and "whole child" philosophy
- Must be eligible to work in the United States

COMPENSATION & BENEFITS

- Salary Range: $28,000–$38,000, commensurate with experience
- Medical, dental, and vision benefits (fixed employer contribution)

TO APPLY

Applicants should submit the following materials:

- Cover letter
- Resume or curriculum vitae
- Three to five (3–5) professional references
- Repertoire List: list of select performances conducted (with dates and repertoire)
- Conducting Videos:
 - One rehearsal excerpt (with date indicated)
 - Two recent concert performance excerpts (with dates indicated)

Conducting videos should be included as unlisted YouTube links on the Repertoire List. Videos should demonstrate at least two contrasting musical styles and a range of conducting abilities. Videos should be recent and, ideally, filmed from the orchestra's perspective. If a single video includes multiple works, please provide time stamps indicating the start of each selection.
