

With over 2,200 very talented students from over 70 countries and 5 continents, around 550 teachers and almost 100 different courses, Mozarteum University has enjoyed an outstanding reputation for decades. In addition to its role as an outstanding training facility, it is also a well-thought-of cultural centre and one of the largest employers in the region.

It is looking to fill the following position in its Stringed and Plucked Instruments Department for the 2027/28 winter semester:

University Professor (m/f/x) for Violoncello (50% part-time position)

Number: 1190/1-2026

(Appointment procedure according to § 98 of the Universities Act 2002 - open-ended, 50% part-time position)

Mozarteum University Salzburg is looking for an outstanding personal with international renown and extensive concert experience in Violoncello, who is committed to and interested in further development in art and teaching.

Key requirements

- An outstanding international artistic career
- Excellent pedagogical and didactic skills appropriate to the task
- A completed national or equivalent foreign higher education qualification relevant to the position, or equivalent artistic qualification.

Profile of the applicant

- The applicant is familiar with the special requirements of teaching at a college or university and is able to contribute to and promote the current specialist discourse through critical reflection
- The applicant shows great commitment to supervising and supporting students
- The applicant is able to work as part of a team, has outstanding communication skills, as well as a high level of sensitivity in terms of diversity and gender issues
- The applicant should ideally demonstrate extensive and excellent orchestra experience

Mozarteum University Salzburg also expects the applicant to:

- choose Salzburg as their home
- actively contribute to the development of teaching concepts and the artistic life of the university
- take part in the university's committees and, if necessary, be willing to take on management tasks.
- be actively involved in the development of teaching concepts, development of subject-specific expertise for and with the students, active participation in artistic life at the university
- supervise artistic and scientific theses
- be involved in project work and organisational processes at the university
- be committed to interdisciplinary subjects and university work (such as Sustainability, Gender and Queer Studies, Third Mission)

The professor's tasks include

- Teaching in the central art subject of instrumental studies

The salary is based on the corresponding collective agreement for university employees in salary group A1 and the basic level is currently a minimum of €3,356.65 gross monthly. This corresponds to a gross annual amount of €46,993.10 (14 monthly payments). Salary and all other details of the employment contract can be discussed during employment contract negotiations.

We cannot reimburse travel and accommodation costs incurred as a result of the admission procedure.

Mozarteum University Salzburg is striving to increase the number of women in research and teaching and, therefore, strongly encourages qualified scientists and artists to apply. If two candidates have the same qualifications, preference will be given to the female candidate. Individuals with disabilities, who are qualified, are also encouraged to apply. Mozarteum University Salzburg is an employer that promotes equal opportunities and is committed to promoting diversity and inclusion.

Applications with the required documents must be submitted by 17.05.2026 using the following link:
<https://www.uni-mozarteum.at/apps/fe/karriere/>.