Art. 7 - Drawing up of the ranking and appointing of the winner

The Examining Board, at the end of the auditions, will establish the ranking of the eligible candidates based upon the outcome of the selection on the base of the points achieved in the final audition for the purpose of the eventual permanent recruitment.

The candidates who have achieved an average score of more than 8.5 points will be judged eligible for the eventual permanent recruitment.

Titles of preferences:

- a) If the same score is achieved, the preference will be given to the candidate who has obtained the right of precedence in accordance with the existing National Collective Labour Agreement, as well as the company agreements or, alternatively, to the candidate who accrued more seniority in the role to which this selection relates by having provided service with temporary contracts at symphonic opera foundations, permanent theatres, traditional theatres, with an equal profile to the position of this public selection procedure, having reached a greater seniority.
- b) In case of further equality, the vote of the President of the Board will count double.

The ranking of eligible candidates is subject to the approval of the Superintendent of the Fondazione, under the suspended condition of the assessment of the requirements for admission to employment and it will be valid for 24 months since the date of its approval.

The Fondazione has the right to suspend or to not proceed to the recruitment of the winner/s due to requirements that can be at the moment not valuable or foreseeable, as well as due to laws dispositions, without the winner/s having the possibility to make pretensions or rights to the recruitment even if the declaration could result non true or not exact.

In case of renunciation or decadence of the winner, the Fondazione has the faculty but not the obligation, to proceed to the recruitment of the eventual eligible candidates who immediately follow in the ranking.

The recruitment foreseen by the previous comma can be decided, at sole discretion by the Fondazione, in the same period of standing still eventual previous rights the valid ranking whereas a similar workplace would become vacant.

Moreover, the Fondazione, at sole discretion, has the right, but not the obligation, to draw another ranking, valid for 12 months from the approval, to satisfy the production and replacement requirements, standing still the eventual previous rights, already in being, and in the respect of the eventual outstanding rankings, until the terms of their validity.

The candidates who will achieve a score not lower than 7/10 at the only final audition will be considered eligible for production and replacement requirements, further to the overmentioned ones.

It is specified, that in case of unpermanent jobs, as for the art. 29 of D.Lgs.81/2015, as modified from D.Lgs. 59/2019, the Fondazione Teatro Regio di Torino will not be able to underwrite with the same subject job contract at unpermanent time for carrying out mansions of the same level and legal category, for a complete duration of 36 months, since July 1st 2019, even not continuous, even to the result of successive prorogation or renewal, excepted different disposal of the collective contracts.

The eligible rankings will be published on the Foundation's website: www.teatrorregione.torino.it, section "Selezione del personale"

At the moment of the recruitment, the Fondazione reserves the right to communicate the documents that the candidate/s winner/s of the selection should produce in original or in autenticated copy.

In order to formalize the recruitment, the eventual winner candidates coming from the United Kingdom, stateless or extracommunitarian countries must present a valid passport and documents authorizing to carry out a subordinate activity in Italy longer than 20 hours weekly (completed in front and back, under penalty of exclusion) as well as the specific work permit allowing the working activity. In case of lack of presentation of this document, the recruitment cannot take place.

The recruitment of the winner/winners, after the verification of the requirements requested by the announcement, will be decided by act of the Superintendent, in accordance with the existing laws, the compatibility with the estimated budget and within the limits of the staff establishment approved as art. 22 of D.Lgs 367/1966 e s.m.i..

The Fondazione will not carry out the recruitment of subjects who, at the foreseen date for the beginning of the job relationship are having employment relationship in other Fondazioni or public or private administrations.

The Fondazione reserves the right to previously verify, in respect of the current regulations, the existence of the physical suitability to the role for which the successful candidate is recruited.

The winner/s will be recruited with permanent full time contract and recruited at the IV level of the technical-administrative area according to C.C.N.L. for the workers of the lyrical and symphonic foundations. The work relationship will be ruled as well by the Internal Labour agreements in rule.

The winning candidates must take up their duties on the date indicated by the Fondazione; the failure to take up their duties by that date without justified reason and failure to sign the employment contract will be considered as resignation.

However, requests for extension by the winner may be taken into account if they are determined by a proven case of force majeure or by circumstances of an exceptional nature to be assessed at the discretion of the Fondazione; if possible, the Fondazione shall fix the final time limit, expired which, the forfeiture will be automatically declared

The recruitment will be in any case subject to the compliance with the provisions of law in force on employment by Operatic and Symphonic Foundations as well as internal service provisions.

The definitive permanent recruitment will be however subordinate to a six-month trial period according to ar. 6 for the employees of Lyric and Symphonic Foundation

In this period, each of the parties may withdraw from the contract without the obligation of prior notice or indemnities.

Art. 8 – Economic and regulatory treatment

The work relationship will be ruled by the National Collective Labour Agreement for permanent employees of the Lyric Symphonic Foundations, the corporate supplementary agreements and the company agreements in force.

Art. 9 - Personal data processing

According to the Article 13 of the Regulation (EU) No. 2016/679 of the European Parliament, the Foundation declares that the data of the candidates will be processed in the respect of the privacy statement enclosed to this public procedure that every candidate has to underwrite and enclose to the request of admission as indicated at the art. 3. In case of the overcoming of the procedure, at the moment of the underwriting of the contract, the privacy statement will be given to the candidate as regards the processing of the personal data linked to the new work relation.

Art. 10 - Final provisions

The participant candidate accepts the condition that the passing of the examinations of this selective procedure and the eventual admission in the ranking does not assure in any case the recruitment, being this one subordinate to the approval of the rankings by the Superintendent, included the financial sustainability requirements for the cost of the recruitment and the compatibility with all the balances sheet items.

This announcement guarantees equal opportunities between men and women for access to work pursuant to Legislative Decree April 11, n. 198

The Fondazione reserves the right to proceed in any moment to the cancellation, suspension, modification of the announcement even in relation to the rules of costs controls that the Fondazione can sustain.

The Fondazione reserves as well the right to re-open the fixed term of this announcement for the presentation of the subscriptions, due to justified reasons. The new candidates must be in possession of the requirements for the admission within the date of expiring of the new terms. The inscriptions presented in precedence remain valuable, with the faculty for the candidates to integrate eventually, within the new date, the presented documentation.

The participants to the procedure do not have right to any allowance or compensation for travel or staying fees.

As not foreseen on this announcement, the relevant laws and contractual rules apply.
