Second Violin, No. 3
Recruitment Pack

Introduction

Dear Candidate,

Thank you for expressing an interest in applying for the role of First Violin, No. 7 and Second Violin, No. 3.

We know how much time and effort can go into applying for a role, so we have created this pack to give you as much relevant information as we can to help you as you prepare your application.

To make sure that our audition process is as equitable as possible, all applications will be treated completely anonymously both during and after the process. The panel will only know the identities of candidates who progress to the chamber round which is unscreened, and no members of the panel or orchestra will ever know the identities of unsuccessful candidates. We therefore ask that you do not discuss your application with members of the orchestra or panel.

It is really important to us that we build an inclusive and diverse organisation that reflects the communities we serve. We recognise that diversity brings a wealth of benefits to us as an organisation and our audiences, and strongly encourage applications from applicants of all backgrounds.

If you have any questions about your application, please get in touch with Orchestra Manager & Fixer Jason Weir via email to jason@lmp.org. Jason is not part of the selection panel, and all pre-application conversations are confidential.

We look forward to receiving your application.

We are London Mozart Players: the oldest, freshest and most adventurous chamber orchestra in the UK

Set up over 75 years ago by Harry Blech to perform the works of Mozart and Haydn, our mission has evolved into creating bold, ambitious and accessible musical experiences for all. We are proud to be at the forefront of embedding arts and culture into the life of communities across the UK and beyond, performing both new works and music that stays true to our roots. We work with schools and music hubs around the UK to inspire the next generation of musicians and music lovers. Collaborating with many of the world's greatest soloists and conductors, our work is made in Croydon and celebrated across the globe.

We are incredibly proud to have been based in Croydon for over 35 years. Our work here is relevant for our community, ambitious in scale and genuine in its collaborative nature. Building on the success of Croydon's term as London Borough of Culture – which we launched in April 2023 – our work in Fairfield and around the borough includes new commissions with talented local artists, community showcases with amateur arts groups and multi-genre participatory projects, all presented through imaginative production, engaging video content and immersive staging. We are committed to celebrating Croydon's unique and diverse community and continue to push our artistic boundaries to best serve the borough as its Resident Orchestra.

Working closely with our Principal Conductor and Artistic Advisor Jonathan Bloxham, our work in central London focuses on presenting classical music in unique and accessible formats. Tasting Notes at Smith Square Hall, our innovative musical wine tasting experience, has quickly become one of our most popular offerings with a strong Under 30s audience. As part of our flagship series at St Martin-in-the-Fields, we have enjoyed collaborating with artists including Angela Hewitt, Jess Gillam and Cédric Tiberghien and look forward to premiering commissions by Anna Clyne and Stephen McNeff in our next season. Piano Explored with Howard Shelley – a series that has run for 10 years – challenges the audience/performer boundary with engaging spoken insights from Howard which reveal the secrets and nuances behind the music.

As well as our residencies at Fairfield Halls in Croydon, St John's, Upper Norwood, Thaxted Festival and Grayshott Concerts, our work is enjoyed internationally through our touring in Europe and Asia. In 2025, we launched our American Friends of LMP scheme as part of a tour in the US with our Royal Patron, HRH The Duke of Edinburgh, to expand our ever-growing network of supporters.

Mission and Vision

At London Mozart Players, our vision is to inspire and connect communities through the transformative power of music. We are dedicated to setting the standard for chamber orchestras worldwide by embracing our core values:

- Always Evolving: We continually innovate to deliver fresh, engaging performances that captivate audiences and challenge artistic boundaries.
- Consistently Creative: Our commitment to creativity drives us to explore new collaborations, reimagine classical works, and pioneer innovative projects that resonate with contemporary audiences.

We aim to enrich lives, foster cultural connection, and ensure that classical music remains vibrant and relevant for generations to come.

The Role

Both First Violin, No. 7 and Second Violin, No. 3 are freelance roles, joining our established team of player members. All members receive an Advance Schedule of anticipated work to support forward planning, and players are expected to maintain a reliable and regular presence.

As LMP often perform with smaller string sections, the successful candidate for the First Violin No. 7 role would typically be offered around 50% of the orchestra's scheduled projects each season.

Unfortunately we are not in a position to sponsor work visas, and as such can only consider applicants who already have the right to work in the UK.

LMP is an ABO Category 1 Orchestra.

The Application Process

Please submit your application via the Musical Chairs portal. Candidates can choose to apply for only First Violin, No. 7, only Second Violin, No. 3 or apply for both positions with a single application.

The deadline for applications is 11.59pm on Thursday 29 January. Please note that late applications will not be accepted.

All applications are anonymous and confidential, and candidates' contact will be with the Orchestra Manager only.

The panel will not be given any information about who has applied, either before or after the audition process. As such we ask that candidates do not discuss their application with members of the orchestra or the panel.

Please complete the Musical Chairs application form by providing the following information:

- Name and contact information
- Equal opportunities monitoring form
- Video submission

Please note that video is used by the Orchestra Manager for verification purposes only, and the panel will only have access to review the audio from each submission.
