Spring Masterclasses

from 21st to 25th of March 2026

at the Rosey Concert Hall (Paul & Henri Carnal Hall), Rolle.

The Spring Masterclasses offer young violinists, violists and cellists an opportunity to work closely with the faculty of IMMA in an environment that encourages concentration, refinement, and artistic growth. Participants will benefit from individual lessons, chamber music coaching, and the chance to experience the unique musical atmosphere that has characterised IMMA since its foundation by Yehudi Menuhin.

The Rosey Concert Hall provides an exceptional setting for study and performance, and we look forward to welcoming students who wish to deepen their musical understanding and develop their instrumental mastery.

During the course, future students of the International Menuhin Music Academy are selected and recruited for a three-year full-time program.

Faculty:

Oleg Kaskiv: violin

Ivan Vukčević: viola

Pablo de Naverán: cello

Olga Sitkovetsky: Pianist and Accompanist

Admission

Admission to the Spring Masterclasses is based on the completion of the online application form, available on the Menuhin Academy website:

www.menuhinacademy.ch/masterclasses

Applicants are kindly requested to complete the application form and submit all required documents exclusively via the online application.

For any additional information or enquiries, please contact:

secretariat@menuhinacademy.ch

Application deadline: 1 March 2026

Fees

All individual lessons and chamber music coaching are provided free of charge.

A participation fee of CHF 500 is required.

Candidates are responsible for their own travel arrangements and related expenses.

Scholarships

A limited number of scholarships is available.

Candidates wishing to apply for a scholarship must indicate this in the application form and submit a letter of motivation.

Scholarships are awarded at the discretion of the selection committee, based on artistic merit, motivation and available funding.

Due to the limited number of scholarships, not all requests can be accommodated, and the decision of the committee is final.

Joining the International Menuhin Music Academy

At the end of the Spring Masterclasses, a selection of potential candidates for the International Menuhin Music Academy will be made through an audition presided over by the IMMA faculty.
