- INTERNATIONAL MASTERCLASS FOR VIOLIN -

09 to 15 August 2026 in Haus Villigst, Germany

Application deadline: 15 June 2026

GUEST PROFESSORS

Prof. Skerdjano Keraj – Cologne University of Music and Dance (Cologne)

Prof. Paul Roczek – Mozarteum University (Salzburg)

Prof. Michael Vaiman

MASTERCLASS REGULATIONS

The masterclass program includes four individual lessons à 45 minutes – at least one lesson with each professor, as well as internal performances and public concerts. Chamber music lessons for existing groups can also be arranged as an alternative to individual lessons. Participants are encouraged to observe one another's lessons.

Participants are free to choose their own repertoire from the following categories:

- 1-2 pieces or movements
- solo violin or with piano accompaniment
- technical level equivalent to that of a solo sonata or partita, such as those by J. S. Bach or Ysaÿe
- repertoire such as, but not limited to, baroque, classical, romantic, or contemporary works.

Piano collaborators can be provided, based on availability, at no additional cost to the participants.

All active participants will receive a certificate of participation after completion of the masterclass.

SCHEDULE

Please arrange to arrive on 09 August 2026. The masterclass begins on 10 August 2026, and the final public concerts will take place on the last day of the masterclass, 14 August 2026. Departure on 15 August 2026.
