

Pisa International Piano Masterclass and Concert Prize

with Maestro Dr. Yossi Reshef

15–17 July 2026

Masterclass Experience

Pisa International Piano Masterclass and Concert Prize

With Maestro Dr. Yossi Reshef

July 15–17, 2026

About the Class

Dr. Yossi Reshef's Masterclass is intended for students from conservatories, music institutes, music high schools, music schools, or for private students who wish to refine and deepen their repertoire, whether in preparation for examinations, competitions, concerts, or to further develop their technical and interpretative skills.

The Masterclass will take place over three days: Wednesday, July 15 – Friday, July 17, 2026.

Each active participant will receive three individual one-hour lessons with Dr. Yossi Reshef.

Registration and Fees

The fee for the complete Masterclass is €400, including the €100 registration fee for participants accepted to the class.

There is no application fee.

Concert Prize

At the conclusion of the Masterclass, a final concert will be held. Upon the recommendation of the teacher and the Academy's Board of Directors, a scholarship prize consisting of a paid concert engagement during the following season will be awarded to the participant who has demonstrated outstanding technical and interpretative abilities.

The prize consists of a performance at one of Pisa's most prestigious venues — Teatro Verdi or Palazzo Blu — with a fee of €250.

Application

Applications close on June 30, 2026.

Please complete the application form below. Applicants are encouraged to submit a short CV and a link to an online video (either a live performance or a home recording).

Please note: Participants should prepare repertoire for three lessons, including one piece for the final concert with a maximum duration of 10 minutes. The remaining repertoire is not subject to any time limit. It is possible to work on the same piece during multiple lessons or to perform a single movement or a selection of shorter piano works.

After submitting the application form, you will be notified promptly regarding your acceptance to the Masterclass and the approval of your proposed repertoire.

There is no application fee.