

2026 Conducting Masterclass Project with Maestra Victoria Zhadko

Maestra Victoria Zhadko

Victoria Zhadko, Ukraine's first female professional conductor, is an accomplished artist and educator who has won prizes at prestigious competitions, including the Prokofiev International Competition in St. Petersburg (1993), the Arturo Toscanini International Conducting Competition in Parma (1993), the Kirill Kondrashin Conducting Competition in Amsterdam (1994), and the Malko Competition in Copenhagen (1995 and 1998). She performs extensively across countries such as Finland, Denmark, Germany, Poland, and the UK. She served as the principal conductor of the Kharkiv Philharmonic from 1997 to 2000 and currently holds a professorship in conducting at the National Music Academy of Ukraine. She studied both guitar and conducting at the P. I. Tchaikovsky Conservatory (today the National Music Academy of Ukraine) and was awarded the title of "Honored Artist of Ukraine" in 1994.
