Application Regulations – VERÃO CLÁSSICO Masterclasses 2020

1. VERÃO CLÁSSICO Masterclasses are intended for music students, professional musicians and teachers, who can apply in the modalities of active participant (categories soloist and of chamber musician) and listener. The teachers will give classes on technique and musical interpretation, based on the works presented by the participants.

2. There are two modalities of participation in VERÃO CLÁSSICO Masterclasses:

a) Active participant (categories of soloist and of chamber musician), entitled to:

- > Three lessons of Instrument or Chamber Music, depending on the participant's category. Possibility of adding extra lesson(s), to choose at application.
- > One optional chamber music lesson for soloists, to choose at application. Soloists, who choose this option, will be integrated into chamber music groups and informed of the repertoire before VERÃO CLÁSSICO begins.
- > One optional Pilates Mat lesson, to choose at application.
- > Participation in the concerts of VERÃO CLÁSSICO Festival, upon teachers and artistic direction's selection.
- > Possibility of attending all Masterclasses.
- > Eligible for VERÃO CLÁSSICO Prizes.
- > Free entrance in all concerts of VERÃO CLÁSSICO Festival.
- > Practice rooms (availability of 2 hours a day, at least).
- > Certificate of attendance.

b) Listener, entitled to:

- > Possibility of attending all Masterclasses.
- > Free entrance in all concerts of VERÃO CLÁSSICO Festival.
- > Practice rooms, when available.
- > Certificate of attendance.

3. The soloists will have lessons with Professor(s) of their instruments. In the Instrument Masterclasses with more than one Professor, participants may indicate, at the time of application, their preference(s) over the Professor(s). For the assignment of the Professor(s), VERÃO CLÁSSICO will take into account the preference(s) indicated by the participants but reserves the right to assign the Professor(s) according to their availability and to the evaluation and selection of applications.

4. Chamber music ensembles may be duos, trios, quartets, quintets, etc, and will have classes with one or more Professors, according to the instrumental formation, the proposed repertoire and the evaluation and selection of applications.

5. Participants (soloists and ensembles) must present at least three musical works or three movements of a work.

6. Some participants (soloists and ensembles) may be invited to perform in concerts of VERÃO CLÁSSICO Festival.

7. All active participants are candidates for VERÃO CLÁSSICO Prizes (in the categories of the various instruments and chamber music), whose jury is formed by the teachers. At the end of VERÃO CLÁSSICO, diplomas will be awarded to the prizewinners. Some prize winners will be invited by VERÃO CLÁSSICO for next seasons' concerts of orchestras and festivals in Portugal.

8. The Masterclasses will have collaboration of piano accompanists.
