Who we are

For 20 years now, the International Opera Academy (IOA) in Ghent offers a specialised fulltime programme to singers and pianists from all over the world, to prepare them for future professional careers as opera singers or répétiteurs.

The IOA cooperates with a variety of partners: opera houses, music theatres, concert halls and orchestras.

What we offer

- An up-to-date curriculum, responding to the changing reality of opera/music theatre;
- Engaged teachers and artists with direct ties to the professional world;
- Possibilities to participate in concerts and events with our professional partners, e.g. the Belgian National Orchestra and the Flanders Symphony Orchestra;
- Minimum one fully staged original opera production with orchestra created by the IOA and its students;
- Opportunities to participate in masterclasses, to audition for agents;
- A study location in Ghent: a cultural hotspot, a historical city full of students and culture. Ghent provides easy access to important concerts and opera productions in major European cities. Brussels, Amsterdam, Paris and London are no more than a two-hour train ride away.
