

Granada Conducting Workshop with Lawrence Golan

The Leonel Morales & Friends Music Festival in Spain is thrilled to announce the 1st annual Granada Conducting Workshop with Lawrence Golan, taking place July 7-13, 2025. The workshop location is in beautiful Granada, Spain, in the shadow of The Alhambra, one of the top tourist attractions in all of Europe. Sixteen active participants will be selected to study with internationally acclaimed conductor and pedagogue Lawrence Golan. The workshop includes daily rehearsals/podium sessions with a string orchestra and daily seminars on topics such as score study, programming, career development, rehearsal technique, etc. The workshop culminates with two public performances in top tier concert halls at which all sixteen participants will conduct; eight on each concert. Lodging and most festival activities are at the 4-star Hotel Alixares, which includes all meals. Professional Quality Video of all sessions will be made available for personal use by the participants.

Program 1 (Saturday, July 12)

Mozart: Adagio and Fugue in C Minor, K. 546

Mendelssohn: Violin Concerto in D Minor, posthumous, 1822

Tchaikovsky: Serenade for Strings, Op. 48

Program 2 (Sunday, July 13)

Mozart: Piano Concerto No. 12 in A Major, K. 414

Dvořák: Serenade for Strings in E Major, Op. 22

Tuition, Fees & Scholarships:

€100 application fee; €800 tuition for participants; €250 tuition for auditors

€150 scholarship for conductors who play a string instrument and play in the orchestra

For further information, please visit Granada Conducting Workshop with Lawrence Golan. To apply, please visit Apply Now/Course in Conducting.