INTERNATIONAL JURY

Magnus Lindberg	Finland, Chairman
José Manuel López López	Spain
Andrea Portera	Italy
Alessandro Sbordonì	Italy
Alessandro Solbiati	Italy

8

The Jury will select the final scores and will choose the winning works after the selected scores have been performed by the dèdalo ensemble in the final concert.

9

The decisions taken by the Jury shall be final. The Jury reserves the right not to award the prizes if no work is deemed to be worthy. The Jury may also give special mentions to one or more works at its own final judgement. The Secretariat reserves the right to replace members of the Jury who are unable to take part in the selection process for reasons outside their control.

10

PRIZES

The winner will be awarded a first prize of Euro 5,000.00.

In addition, the winning work will be published by the Milan-based publisher Suvini-Zerboni. If already under contract to another publisher, the composer shall be responsible for obtaining an exemption from this obligation.

There will be a second prize (Euro 1,500.00) and a third prize (Euro 500.00).

The prizes must be collected in person by the composers, on penalty of forfeiture.

The RAI – Radiotelevisione Italiana reserves the right to record the final evening, possibly with a view to broadcasting the concert.

11

The authors must send the instrumental parts in the zipped folder named with Name.Surname to the email tognicompetition@gmail.com within 15 days of the selection being made. Those concerned will be informed personally by e-mail. Only the scores and the names of the respective composers in the final will be posted on the website www.dedaloensemble.it.

12

The application to take part in and to present works for the Competition implies full acceptance of the present competition regulations.

In the event of a dispute, the Italian language version of this announcement will be legally binding.

The Court of Brescia will be competent to resolve any dispute.
