

4th Ponce Project International Piano Competition 2026

Música Clásica Latinoamericana

Ponce Project Music Foundation (PPMF) invites pianists of all nationalities to participate in its 4th Ponce Project International Piano Competition 2026.

The Competition aims at establishing the world's premier piano competition featuring exclusively the Mexican and Latinoamerican repertoire. Its mission is to provide an opportunity to pianists, especially young artists, to learn, perform and love this extraordinary body of music.

In fostering a supportive and inspiring competitive environment that elevates both performers and music to the highest artistic level, the Competition seeks to spotlight Mexican and Latinamerican piano music, ensuring it is recognized and celebrated worldwide.

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Pianists can compete in either the LIVE or VIRTUAL modality, each with its own winners and prizes.
- Each modality, LIVE & VIRTUAL, include four Jóvenes Artistas Divisions organized by age from 6 to 18 years, plus one Division Libre with an age limit of 35.
- The Concierto Competition, with an age limit of 35 is a new division offered in the LIVE modality only. Besides the cash prize it offers an orchestra performance in Mexico.
- The LIVE Competition will take place on Saturday, August 15, 2026, in Houston, Texas, at Kinder High School for the Performing and Visual Arts (HSPVA), starting at 9:00 a.m.
- The VIRTUAL Competition requires a video submission by August 1, 2026.
- Previous First Prize winners may compete again only with new repertoire and may not repeat previously performed works.
- Competition Chairs: Rodolfo Morales & Omar Herrera Arizmendi
