Pre-selection

The jury will make the pre-selection of participants based on the viewing of the videos and the curriculum. Video recording must be made no earlier than June 30, 2025, with a fixed camera, without post-production, in which the hands are clearly visible. The repertoire to be recorded is detailed under the heading pre-selection repertoire. This recording must be sent as a link to the YouTube platform, specifying in the description of the video the works performed and the name of the contestant.

The curriculum must include the contestant's artistic career, including the prizes obtained, the study center, as well as the name of the current teacher and that of the previous studies, if they have been completed.

Notification of admission or non-admission to participate in the face-to-face tests of the competition will be made no later than July 31, 2026.

A list of the contestants admitted for the face-to-face tests will be made public on the contest's social networks.

Confirmation of participation

Admitted contestants must confirm their participation by email sent to concursopianodeliasteinberg@gmail.com ratifying the program to be performed in the eliminatory tests before August 20, 2026. Failure to confirm within the indicated period will result in the loss of a place in the competition. This place may be offered to another contestant at the discretion of the jury.

The program to be performed by each contestant, in all its tests, will be reviewed by the secretary and the artistic direction of the contest, whose acceptance or necessary modification will be notified to the contestant.

Online draw

On September 15, 2026 at 8:00 p.m., the draw will take place in Oeiras (Portugal) to determine the order of participation of the contestants. The organization will provide the link to follow the draw live days before. Subsequently, the order of participation in the First face-to-face test will be published on social networks and notified by email to each contestant.

GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

Repertoire

All works must be performed from memory.

The repetition of the same work in different tests is not allowed.

Works that require prior piano preparation will not be admitted.

The chosen repertoire must reflect the artistic personality of the contestant, as well as their ability to express musical ideas. For this reason, the jury will assess not only the interpretation of the repertoire presented but also its difficulty and variety.

The repertoire sent will be reviewed by the artistic direction and the secretary of the competition, who reserve the right to reject repertoires that do not meet the requirements of these rules and to request the necessary corrections from the contestant in question.

Rehearsal pianos

The organization will offer rehearsal pianos to the contestants in the facilities where the contest is held. The allocation criteria will be determined by the order of participation.

A list of contestants and the assigned rehearsal room will be published each day, trying to provide equal rehearsal time to each contestant.

Other considerations

At the end of each of the tests, the organization will make public the list of contestants who will go on to the next test on the contest's website and networks, as well as on the contest's notice board.

Unjustified delay by the contestant to any of the tests will lead to immediate elimination.

Complaints will not be accepted in relation to the decisions of the jury and the organization of the contest, since they are final.

The contest reserves the right to record the different tests for the exclusive use of its website and social networks. Therefore, any recording by the audience will have to be previously approved by the organization of the contest.

The organization of the contest reserves the right to modify each of the points of these rules, making them known well in advance.

For the resolution of possible doubts or errors in the translated versions, the official text of the contest will be considered the one written in Portuguese.
