

NorrlandsOperan Symphony Orchestra

Audition for

Principal Flute, including piccolo and 2 flute permanent position, full time.

NorrlandsOperan in Umeå is the world's northernmost opera house, but only an hour's flight from Stockholm. It is one of the most modern in Europe, arranging more than 400 different events a year. NorrlandsOperan's four stages offer concerts, operas, dance, theatre and festivals. The new opera house and concert hall opened in spring 2002. As a member of The Symphony Orchestra at NorrlandsOperan you will work in a creative environment where some fifty professional musicians play an important role in NorrlandsOperan's artistic development. In addition to about fifty concerts a year and two major opera productions you will also have the chance to play in different chamber music ensembles. The orchestra also regularly makes radio and CD recordings. One recent highlight was its nomination in 2008 for the US Grammy Award in the category Best Contemporary Composition for its recording of David Chesky's Urban Concertos.
